

FAQ's

Can I still be a sponsor?

Yes, and we thank you for your interest! At this point, you may not receive all the perks due to the fact that some print deadlines may have passed but we would love to have you join us at the event by becoming a sponsor. Sponsorships will only be available for a short time leading up to the event. Contact kaylan@patsplacecac.org for more information.

I'm a sponsor, do I get tickets?

Yes! The number of tickets you receive are based on your sponsorship level of choice (see below). However, no physical tickets will be distributed.

I am not a sponsor but would like to purchase tickets to attend, how can I go about doing so?

What happens at Rhythm & Brews?

A DJ will provide background music while guests enjoy local craft beer, wine and delicious food all while supporting a great cause – Pat's Place Child Advocacy Center. This year's event will also feature a live and silent auction as well as a short program to share more about the organization and raise critical dollars needed for the center to continue its work of providing hope and healing for those who have experienced the most serious forms of abuse in Mecklenburg County.

What is the attire?

The dress code for this event is dressy casual. This is one of the few times where you can get away with wearing jeans to a county club and this year we're encouraging guests to show their school spirit - so grab that UNC, Duke, or your school of choice polo and come ready to party!
