

RHYTHM & BREWS FAQ's

Can I still be a sponsor?

Yes, and we thank you for your interest! At this point, you may not receive all the perks due to the fact that some print deadlines may have passed but we would love to have you join us at the event by becoming a sponsor. Contact kaylan@patsplacecac.org for more information.

I'm a sponsor, do I get tickets?

Yes! The number of tickets you receive are based on your sponsorship level of choice (see below). However, no physical tickets will be distributed.

Please be sure to let us know of your guest list by February 28. Simply email your list to kaylan@patsplacecac.org

Supporter: 2 tickets

Ally: 2 tickets

Friend: 4 tickets

Advocate: 6 tickets

Entertainment: 6 tickets

Technology: 8 tickets

Patron: 8 tickets

Guardian: 10 tickets

Title: 10 tickets

What is the attire?

The dress code for this event is casual. However, the event will be held both inside and outside, so dress accordingly.

I am not a sponsor but would like to purchase tickets to attend, how can I go about doing so?

Tickets are available for purchase individually for $75 or through sponsorship ranging from $300-$10,000. For more information, visit patsplacecac.org/event/rhythm-brews/

What happens at Rhythm & Brews?

OldSkool will provide background music while guests enjoy Lost Worlds beer, wine and delicious food all while supporting a great cause – Pat's Place Child Advocacy Center. This year's event will also feature a short program to share more about the organization and various ways to raise critical dollars needed for the center to continue its work of providing hope and healing for those who have experienced the most serious forms of abuse in Mecklenburg County.

Will there be food?

Yes, heavy hors d'oeuvres will be served at tables scattered throughout the venue during the course of the evening. A full dinner will not be served.

RHYTHM & BREWS FAQ's

I bought tickets, but I can't attend. Can I give my tickets to a friend?

Absolutely! Please contact Kaylan Mariano at kaylan@patsplacecac.org with any changes to your guest list as soon as possible.

Will there be an auction?

Yes! This year's event will feature a silent auction. For the auction, we will be using a mobile bidding company. This service will allow attendees early access to view and bid on auction items. If you cannot attend the event, you will still have access to participate in the auction. However, you must pre-register via the link in the latest constant contact email.

How can I donate an item for the auction?

We welcome and appreciate any and all donations. If you would like to donate an item to the auction, please contact Kaylan at kaylan@patsplacecac.org. Upon receipt, we will provide you with a letter for your tax records.

Can I make a donation to Pat's Place Child Advocacy Center at the event?

Yes! You will have an opportunity to donate directly to Pat's Place through the mobile bidding website. If you would like to make a cash or check donation instead, you will have the opportunity to do so at the check in/out table.

Are masks required?

As recommended by the Mecklenburg County Public Health Director, face masks will be optional.

Will the basketball games be on at the event?

Yes! Televisions will be airing the basketball games throughout the evening.

Have a question we haven't answered?

Reach out to Kaylan Mariano by phone at 704-335-2760 or email at kaylan@patsplacecac.org and she will be happy to help!

